GALA ISSUE PLANNED!

Plans are afoot to add, as a one-time good deal, an extra four pages next issue, to include an encore of the "Boris Hall of Fame" and perhaps an updated MAGIC REALM map. Also on tap is the return of the "On Deck" listings, so with your orders let us know what games you'd like to play here, preferably from the following lists. We're giving serious thought to running some of the more interactive games exclusively by e-mail (an e-flyer?); these titles would include BRITANNIA, MAHARAJAH, SUMMIT, and, yes, HISTORY OF THE WORLD. Generally, we'd want a full board to run a game.

We had a quota for CIV (or was it ADV CIV?) six months ago, so we'll try to publish the House Rules to them next time. None of the several pbm games of CIV I was in ever finished, having broken down over the trading system. I'm in another with a different trading system in CDDMJ, but the issue reporting our first move is already three weeks overdue.

GAMES ALREADY PLAYED HERE: DIPLOMACY, BRITANNIA, HISTORY OF THE WORLD, KREMLIN, MAGIC REALM, DUNE, 1830, 1835, SILVERTON, STELLAR CONQUEST, The Hunt.

NEW GAMES: COLONIAL DIPLOMACY, LIFT OFF!, (ADVANCED) CIVILIZATION, 1829, 1856, 1870, KAMAKURA, GUNSLINGER, MAHARAJAH, DOWN WITH THE KING, CONQUISTADOR, PLANET MINERS, TITAN, TUF-A-BET.

Mail early to avoid your letters being delayed by the Christmas postal deluge!

BORIS'S BULLETIN BOARD

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH:

War is the unfolding of miscalculations.

--Barbara Tuchman

Mayfair Games has bought the rights to SILVERTON and will be producing a new edition soon. 'Tain't likely to be out before Christmas though.

Don del Grande is folding Lemon Curry after 157 issues. He'll be missed.

Don Gorham ("Boris IX") has a new e-mail address and Don Chinnery ("Vengeance is Mine", "1835-C", "Silverton", and "Merchant of Venus") has a new temporary e-mail address. Check them out in boldface on the bottom of page 18.

Don Chinnery's postal game of 1830 is finishing up and he's accepting suggestions for an encore, most probably from the 18xx series, including the new 1856 and 1870.

BOOS & KUDOS

This month's Madame Bolduc Press Excellence Award goes to jointly to the authors of the articles from the Therengi Business Review and Il Duce. They split an extra issue.

No Ma Ner SuperSudsy Bomb will be lobbed this time. She's just too tired.

ERRATA: Turkish F Aeg-Ion failed. Italy has two centers so only needs to tear 1. England may build due to annihilation of F PIE.

MURKWOOD: Prospects look bad for Italy as the Eternal City has been quietly occupied by its ancient enemy Islam. The Russo-Serbian Empire is intact—for now—but German pressure will soon be brought to bear as the Turks gaze greedily at SER. CLIFFHANGER--Now there is nothing between the forward elements of the Austrian army and the Atlantic but an empty PAR--Italian controlled at that. But the war is not yet over as the Austrian tyrant needs PAR and two more centers. KIE could easily fall if the West continues to squabble but VEN is too protected to take by force. A weakened Germany may not be able to resist next year, so 1909 could be the year of decision.

CLEARWINE: Austro-Italian coordination was very much lacking in this season's Anatolian Campaign. Turkey can retain ANK this year against the invaders and perhaps also the next—but will it be long enough before the inevitable Austro-Russian tiff will begin and troops need to be diverted from Asia Minor? Germany and Italy already enjoy ringside seats. Tag team anyone? Meanwhile, England is getting the worse of it in the current "discussions" with France concerning control of ENG. Germany, again, is well placed to intervene decisively for either side, although King Rudy is the more likely target.

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

Geneva Gazette. ADMIRAL LINGUINI KIDNAPS POPE! ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT ON AUSTRIAN EMPEROR BY GENERAL TURKEY TETRAZINNI! Stories on p 25.

Il Duce (Rome, opposition): Initial reports from an undisclosed source in the War Department indicate the newly raised army in NAP was kidnapped by the visiting Austrian fleet last night. Upon further investigation, this newspaper determined that the army did indeed embark with the visiting fleet, probably destined to be cannon fodder in Turkey to feed Austrian imperial expansion. Our brave young lads were no doubt lured aboard with chocolate and cute little leather shorts, meanwhile the Northern Army is wandering the mountains south of Switzerland and the 'so-called' real army is lost in the African desert. Naturally, Foreign Minister Fisher was unavailable to explain these useless troop movements: rumor has it he is visiting the wine making regions of France.

How long can the Italian people tolerate such high-handed Imperial trifling with our nation's defense while the hired foreign lackey cavorts abroad?

Thereng Business Review (Harvard, USA): Turkish coffee prices have shot up with the recent acquisition of the product by Italian firms. The Austrian firm of Cafe Vienna is also trying to penetrate the Turkish supply of coffee but they are lagging behind in the transportation logistics as the Italians have more ships available to carry the product.

Flemish liners have also seen a dramatic rise as the British firm of Soft and Comfort (a division of the American Charmin company) has completed a hostile takeover of the Flemish linen companies. The takeover is probably due to the control of Irish linens and a desire to reduce competition and monopolize prices. The British seem intent on changing this monopoly into a fortune with market penetration into the Iberian and North African markets despite tentative ventures by the French. This could be a real profitable venture.

The biggest question at this time is who will dominate the Scandinavian dairy product market. The Germans seem to have an advanced control of the dairy products but the Russian bear seems to have awakened from its hibernation and is quickly bringing its economic power to bear on the region. The centralized resources of the Germans may topple the Russians' extended transportation lines if the other competitors do not try market penetration for some time.

In all aspects, especially the arms market, things seem quite profitable.

Stock Round #3

Corrections are 1830's Middle Name

Correction Corner: Michael Tusk had correctly pointed out that I gave Paul Zieske too much cash in the last operating round, should be $78 - not $84. Don Chinnery also pointed out that I forgot to credit the $3 cash for revenue in the NYC treasury. I re-adjudicated the game with the use of Avalon Hill's Computer 1830 game and found I made another mistake from the initial private company auction round. I shorted Michael Quist's position by $10 which is now added to his account.
